

i want xm to deliver instant weather and traffic report. i deserve the right to this service since i pay for them. satelite radio provides variety and quality programming and the national association of broadcasters should not impede growth and healthy competition. i should have the right to listen to broadcasting the way i want it, when i want it and how i want it. please stop stepping on my rights!